Making Bushes

Starting wherever there is an arrow and working upwards and across the page to the right, make short “curls” to go up the top of the bush and down the other side like the one already drawn. This is a free-flowing pattern which should be done quickly.